BASEBALL REVIVAL HERE

Practical Assurance of a Good Team for the Athletic Club

It appears that Portsmouth is sure to have a revival this season of the grand old sport of baseball and that this city by the sea is once more to take its old time place as a believer and supporter of our great national game.

The committee appointed by President Newell of the Portsmouth Athletic club has found sentiment very much alive and awake for baseball and the prospects for support are encouraging.

The great obstacle is the lack of suitable grounds. The old lot at the South End has been cut into house lots. The Christian Shore lot now has no fence and the grounds have been neglected several years and would need rebuilding.

An effort will be made to arrange for the fencing of the grounds at the Plains and the erection of stands and all the other needed buildings.

The old time baseball players are all alive to the opportunities and ready to help the present generation push the good thing along. There will be something doing in Portsmouth in baseball this year—sure.

HOW GIRLS RUIN MEN

A Good Attraction for Tonight On The Music Hall Stage

On Thursday night the Whiteside Strauss Company presented the strong four-act southern drama, "The Octoroon's Revenge," to a large and appreciative audience. The parts were all well taken and the specialties made their usual big hit.

The pictures between the acts seem to please the audience greatly. "Cohn's Dream of Cony Island," being particularly laughable.

The specialties between the acts include "The Kibby's" in feats of magic, "The Johnson Sisters," a swagget singing and dancing team, "Joe Natus," tenor, late of Lew Dockstader's minstrels; Sturdevant and Trebor, comedy duo, and "Will Strauss," the comedian.

Tonight, the company presents their feature play of the week, "How Girls Ruin Men," and a finished production is promised. New specialties will be introduced and an entire new set of moving pictures will be shown between the acts.

This is an extra good repertoire company and has drawn good attendance. People will want to see to-night's remarkable play.

Further Particulars of the Dedication and of Mrs. Duncan's Death

Kittery, Me., April 15.—The death of Mr. Alfred C. Hayes of Everett, Mass., son of Mr. George Hayes, occurred in Boston on Thursday forenoon as the result of an accident in an elevator. The body will be brought to Kittery and buried from the Second Christian church, on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hayes was another Kittery son who was making his mark. Unpretentious, yet valued by his firm, for his real worth. He leaves his wife and son of about fifteen, and one brother, George F. Hayes, of this town. The deceased was aged forty years, and was educated at Phillips Exeter academy and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He was a member of the Odd Fellows.

Mrs. Josie E. Duncan, wife of Edwin A. Duncan, was born in Kittery, Me. Sept. 6, 1843, and passed away in the same town, April 15, almost a year to a day from the date of death of her beloved daughter, Miss Hattie. She was the daughter of William and Joanna Phillips, in a family of seven children, but one of whom is now living, Mrs. Mary A. Hopkins, of Chelsea, Mass. Her marriage to Mr. E. A. Duncan occurred August 24, 1865. From this union four children were born, but one of whom now survive, Maurice L. Duncan of Lowell, Mass. During a residence of thirteen years in Rochester, N. H. Mrs. Duncan joined the Free Will Baptist church by letter from the Second Christian church of Kittery. Resuming her residence in this town, she also resumed her church affiliation and continued till the time of her death, a consecrated member as far as health permitted. For many months she has been in feeble health, needing the watchful care of near ones beloved. But kindness of heart winning personality, patience and above all Christian resignation is the will of an all-wise Father lightened the care especially of recent days. She drew about her a circle of interested friends who mourn her loss today. While they grieve, however, they think of the joy of a reunion "over there" with the daughters and others gone before. None could wish her back to continue in suffering; rather would they follow the great good in her example and one day greet her once more in that land where tears are forever wiped away and the inhabitants never more say "I am sick."

A nurse, Mr. Augustus Jackson, is in constant attendance on Mr. Samuel Keene of Government street, who is critically ill at his home.

There was a good attendance last evening at the rehearsal of the Choral Society, held in the vestry of the Second Christian church.

Alonzo Hearn, a student at Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., has been passing his vacation at home.

Judge James W. Locke, a genial summer resident, is finding plenty to engage his attention in his duties in Jacksonville, Florida.

About time that the local baseball club began to think seriously of putting together. Come, Messrs. Boutwell, S. Johnson, Ned Paul, Able, (Huntton), George Johnson, and the rest! Line up! Get ready to play Portsmouth Athletic.

Mr. Arthur S. Lane was one of those to take the civil service examination in Portsmouth on Wednesday.

As a result of the severe rain of late an old cess pool, which acts as a drain for the cellar of the house occupied by Joseph Jenkins on Government street, caved in. It leaves quite a hole in the thoroughfare next west of the store of M. W. Paul.

Charles H. Farwell of Walker street is entertaining his sister, Mrs. John Jacobs of Uganquit.

Rev. J. J. Merry of Boston, Me., preached at a special service at the newly dedicated Congregational church, Kittery Point, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Trefethen has returned to her home in Somerville, Mass., after a visit in our midst.

The committee appointed to make arrangements for the anniversary supper of York Rebekah lodge will meet with Mrs. F. M. Stacey on Friday evening, to make arrangements for the same.

St. Aspinquid Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, will hold their regular meeting this evening, in Grange hall.

Mrs. William H. Spinney of South Eliot has been a recent visitor in town. A regular meeting of Col. Mark F. Wentworth Camp, Sons of Veterans was held last evening in their hall in the Hayes block.

The Aid Society of York Rebekah Lodge was entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Luttis. Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Langton have returned from a long winter sojourn in Florida.

Grass rapidly greened under the influence of the recent rain.

Miss Ethel Farwell of the Wentworth grammar school enjoyed a visiting day today in Portsmouth.

A Service of Dedication in the Restored Meeting House of the First Church of Christ, Kittery, Maine, more familiarly known as the "Congregational Church at the Point" was held on Wednesday evening at 7.30. It appears that the house was built in 1730, remodeled in 1840 and 1871 moved to its present site in 1871 from a point directly south on the electric road. Had the weather been propitious, undoubtedly the building would not have contained those interested in the proceedings; as it was, the edifice was nearly filled, visiting clergy for the most part, being given seats in one of the ten restored old fashioned box pews to the right and left of the pulpit. Happy indeed, was the thought to restore the old fashioned high pulpit, to its original position and the whole edifice gave abundant proof of thorough cleansing and repair. With pews newly painted, a new carpet of sage green mixture lighted for the most part by four chandeliers of four lamps each and four additional lamps on the pulpit—the whole effect was most pleasing, reflecting much credit on those having the matter in charge. Rev. L. H. Thayer of the North Church, Portsmouth, arranged the four page programme, containing on the outside a cut of the church. The services opened with a duet for organ and piano carried respectively by Mrs. H. E. Currier and Miss C. Mildred Dornell. The "Andante Cantabile" by Beethoven was most effective beneath their artistic touch. Introductory scriptural sentences were then read by Rev. Mr. Thayer. A hymn followed. The responsive readings were then in order and the congregation sang another hymn. The act of dedication was participated in by leader and people and was inclusive of a resume of the purpose and reason of dedication: the element of consecration was also included in the order prepared. The Rev. William W. Dow of Portsmouth, a former minister, gave an inclusive and appropriate prayer of dedication. This was followed by a hymn and the sermon of the evening, by Rev. George Lewis. The text was 1 Kings 7:22. "And in the top of the pillars was lily work," the ultimate end of all evil, the final crown of all ill. Miss Adelaide E. Brown and Rev. Edward H. Macy rendered "Peace to This Sacred Dwelling," using the always beautiful setting of Alice Mary Smith for their duet. Mr. James H. Walker gave the historical address, "The Three Meeting Houses of the First Church of Christ in Kittery," the parish originally included Eliot and the Berwick. Mr. Walker showed the burial cloth over 200 years old, also the church plate, a part of which was the gift of Sir William Pepperell.

The congregation were invited to join in an offering and Mr. Arthur S. Lane sang "The Lord is My Light" as an offertory solo. Greetings from Rev. Henry V. Emmons, former pastor unable to be present, were read by Mr. Thayer; they included also an effective

CONGRESS MAY FORBID GRAIN SALES ON MARGINS

The Corner in Wheat Causes Activity on the Scott Bill

Washington, April 16.—Congress today takes up the battle for bread.

The anti-option bill introduced by Charles E. Scott, chief of the agricultural committee of the house, is to be rushed through.

The bill makes it a crime to gamble in grain and would prevent the cornering of crops, the creating of artificial prices, and thereby would tend to keep down the price of bread to normal.

While ordinarily the bill would not come up for action before December, it is said that because of the present serious situation in wheat Congress will act immediately.

The bill is a consolidation of a bill introduced by Mr. Scott two years ago prohibiting dealings in future in grain and grain producers, and a pending bill, introduced by Mr. Burleson of Texas, prohibiting dealings in future in cotton.

It provides that every telegraphic or mail purchase of grain or cotton shall be accompanied by affidavit setting forth the fact the purchase is bona fide, not on margin, and the articles are needed for use by the purchaser; newspapers are prohibited from publishing quotations of markets permitting marginal transactions in farm products, and telegraph and telephone companies may not transmit such quotations.

Exeter, April 16.

The track season at Phillips-Exeter Academy promises to be of unusual interest. Members of the academy squad and others are warm in praise of the new track in the Plimpton playing fields, opened this spring. Next week will be marked by the visit of the Harvard track team, which will thus secure a change of scene for the spring recess. On May 1 will be held the academy interschool meet for the 1909 cup. The second Harvard freshman-Exeter meet would naturally be held at Cambridge, but at Harvard's wish it is scheduled for May 8 at Exeter. This year for the first time Exeter will be represented in the Yale interschool meet, and with the Harvard interschoolistic team will have the best of preparation for the dual meet with Andover on May 31 at Andover.

Company I of this town, according to the recently issued orders, will be transferred to the coast artillery with three other companies, those of Dover, Portsmouth and Laconia, and will be ordered to Fort Constitution at New Castle next July. Company I was organized three years ago, and the term of enlistment expires April 23, when nearly all of the members will probably re-enlist.

At the regular meeting of the First Parish circle on Thursday afternoon H. B. Taplin of Boston, secretary of the Eliot house of that city, delivered a very interesting lecture on "Boston's Battle With the Slaves." The meeting was well attended.

Charles Jones, who has recently signed with the Providence, R. I. Eastern league team, has left for that city, where the season opens Saturday.

TORPEDO CORPS HAS NEW BOAT

Arrived Today for Use in Drills At Torpedo and Mining Work

The torpedo corps attached to the 15th company coast artillery, at Portsmouth, are going to be busy soon in torpedo and mining practice in the lower harbor.

The apparatus necessary in this work is daily arriving at the post and the men will be on the job during the summer.

Today a large motor boat, one of thirty-five built for the government in New Jersey, arrived and will be used by the corps in connection with the work.

WAR HEROES' NAMES

Movement to Give Them to Regiments
of the United States Army

New York, April 16.—At tonight's encampment of Lafayette post, No. 140, Grand Army of the Republic, one of the largest posts in the organization,
a resolution of interest to all patriotic Americans and students of American history will be offered by Captain George L. Kilmer, a well known veteran and writer on war topics.

Captain Kilmer believes that the custom of naming forts and vessels of a certain class in the navy after soldiers and sailors distinguished in the service of the country could be followed with advantage in the army. His resolution declares that "as a stimulus to patriotic thought and feeling and for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the many heroes of the republic every regiment, battery or corps having permanent organization in the army should bear, in addition to its numerical designation, the name of a soldier of meritorious record in war." As a beginning it is recommended that the Ninth infantry be known as the "Stannard regiment" in honor of General George J. Stannard, who commanded the brigade which repulsed Pickett's charge at Gettysburg.

Captain Kilmer's resolution has been approved by several well known veterans of the civil war, and Lafayette post is expected to recommend the matter to the military authorities. Several regiments of the British bear the names of heroes of that service.

BARON TAKAHIRA'S TRIP

Submarine Boat Lake Will Take Ja-

Bridgeport, Conn., April 16.—This city will entertain distinguished guests
today in the persons of Baron Kogoro Takahira, Japanese ambassador to the United States; Captain J.B. Murdock
of the battleship Rhode Island, Representatives Hill and Moore and other government officials. They will be the guests of the local board of trade.

Among the features of Baron Takahira's
visit will be a trip on the submarine boat Lake, now lying in the harbor. The diplomat is greatly interested in the development of submarine navigation and has expressed a desire to inspect the workings of the Lake.

Young Woman Has Him Released

and Marries Him

Providence, April 16.—Miss Christina Palmieri, an Italian, aged 20,
was married to Camillo Desisto, 21 years old, who, on March 5 last, shot her in the back during a fit of jealousy.

In order to marry her, Desisto, who was held in jail because of his inability to furnish bail of $4000 in a charge of assault with intent to kill, Miss Palmieri secured a reduction of the bonds to $1500 and then furnished
the sureties necessary for her lover's release.

Desisto readily accepted the girl's suggestion that they be married and the ceremony was performed by the same justice who reduced Desisto's bail.

The charge against Desisto probably will not be prosecuted. Miss Palmieri was the only witness to the affair and since her marriage to the defendant she cannot be compelled to testify against him.

complaint upon which the warrant was issued was made by one of the Brooks heirs.

FORTUNES ARE SWEEPED AWAY

Small Speculators Caught In Wheat Pit Panic

BULLS RECEIVE SETBACK

Prices at Chicago Tumble Precipitately
—Patten Buys Furiously and Causes a Reaction of a Cent All Along the Line—Wheat King Personally Visits Floor of Exchange and Directs Own Deals by Word of Mouth

Chicago, April 16.—"Wheat King" Patten put up a fight for life during fifteen minutes of fortune wrecking in "the pit" Thursday afternoon. Several times Patten was standing in the very shadow of defeat. Each time he bought more July.

The fight will be renewed today and it is rumored that Patten has been so weakened by his losses of Thursday that he may go down with a crash.

It had been a calm day on the board of trade, and the stuff that makes bread had kept up its docile advance to a new high level. Then it suddenly dropped an extreme 1 1/2 cents.

Panic followed. "Fortunes" of small speculators were swept away in a few seconds. It was only Patten's exertions that saved his bull friends from utter rout. Within the last fifteen minutes of trading Patten bought 3,000,000 bushels of wheat for July delivery.

The while he chewed the stub of a cigar and ran his fingers reflectively
through his unshaven gray stubble
which there had been no time to remove from his face. A carnation adorned his coat lapel, but there was a layer of Chicago dust on his coat and hat.

"Nothing but a flurry," he said, but that was after the turbulent pit had been deserted for the day.

During the final quarter of an hour he was a very busy man. Into the corridor of the Western Union building, in which the Bartlett-Patten offices are, floated the sound of high-pitched nervous voices as clerks at the telephone shot in buying orders to other clerks in the pit. "Buy 50.
Buy 100. Buy 25."

These numbers referred to thousands of bushels of wheat, and there were many smaller ones—so many, in fact, that not all of them were filled.
It was a physical impossibility to do so.

Patten personally visited the floor of the exchange and directed his own deals by word of mouth.

It was Patten against the field, and the final gong showed that the former,
apparently, was as mighty as ever.
His purchases, and those of his followers, together with the profit-taking of shorts, who lost no time in securing the fruits of their bearish daring, caused a reaction of over a cent all along the line. But before this occured the board of many a small speculator had gone.

Far from the maddening strife on the board, in hundreds of bakeries
there was a different, although related, scene. Flour had risen and the bakers were trying to find out where their profits were coming from unless the price of bread could be raised.

According to one of the largest bakers in the city, the price of flour
has doubled in the last six years; lard has done likewise; milk has advanced 33-1-3 percent; delivery charges have doubled, and yet the price of bread remains the same. Three years ago, when flour prices were on a rampage,
many bakers saved their profits by reducing the weight of their loaves, and the quality of flour used.

But it is said there is no further extremes of economy to which they can go, and meanwhile they allege that their net earnings are nil. So far, however, no concerted action has been taken with regard to the situation.

TRYING TO IMPROVE US

Scientists Discussing Race Betterment at Philadelphia Convention

Philadelphia, April 16.—"Race Improvement in the United States" and
"The Development of Physical Welfare Through Social Environment" are the principal topics for discussion at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science
in this city today and tomorrow.

Among those taking part in the various discussions are men of national prominence. The exhibit on congestion in cities is in charge of Benjamin C.
Marsh, secretary of the New York
committee on congestion in cities.

On the program are Oscar S. Straus, former secretary of commerce and labor; John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers; Congressman Herbert Parsons of New York; Congressman William S. Bennett of the immigration commission, Dr. Luther H. Gulick of New York and Roy Stannard Baker, who will discuss the liquor problem in its relation to the race problem in the south.

BANQUET WITH UNUSUAL FEATURES

Latin Americans Entertained at Washington Function

Washington, April 16.—Elaborate decorations, speeches by men of international prominence and the greatest of good cheer were the features which made the banquet given here
last night in honor of Chairman Knox and the members of the governing board of the international bureau of American republics by John Barrett, director of the bureau, one of national and international significance.

The guests were seated at twenty-one tables, each table being named after one of the republics whose representatives are serving their country
here in a diplomatic capacity.

Music, food, decorations, toasts,
speeches, everything was international.
The dishes were characteristic of Latin-America, most of them never having been served before in Washington.

Immediately after the drinking of a toast to the presidents of the American republics the large banquet hall was darkened and to the strains of music from the national hymn of each of the republics, upon a screen at the end of the hall was displayed the flag of the country whose national hymn
was being played at that moment.

Following the showing of each flag stereoscopic pictures of scenes in the country represented were shown.

The object of the dinner was to emphasize the development of closer relations of commerce and friendship between the United States and her sister republics of Latin-America.

Three Months Consumed in Securing a Satisfactory Jury

San Francisco, April 16.—After three months used in completing a jury, the trial of Patrick Calhoun,
president of the United Railroads,
has reached the testimony taking stage.

SEIZURE ORDER IS CARRIED OUT

Carroll Springs Distillery In Hands of Government

OFFICERS ARREST SIX MEN

Charged With Taking Old Whisky From Warehouses and Substituting New Whisky on Which No Tax Had Been Paid—Property Valued at About $250,000, Including 8000 Bar- rels of Liquor

Baltimore, April 16.—Acting on instructions from Washington, United States Marshal Loughammer and Revenue Inspector Miller, with deputy marshals, seized the plant and stock of the Carroll Springs Distillery company in this city. The whole plant is now in the custody of a special watchman.

At the same time six men connected with the distillery were arrested.
They are H. J. Daly, Jr., manager;
George E. Conway, bookkeeper; John Hackman, still master; Henry Weis-
gar and John Travers, warehousemen,
and John Olix, driver.

Subsequently they were released
for a hearing next Thursday before Commissioner Bond, duly on $5000
bail and the others on bail of $2000 each. A. Kahrs, another driver, will be arrested later, he not having been at the distillery when the others were taken into custody.

The seizure and arrests were made upon charges that the men named, on or about July 1, 1908, and Jan. 1, 1909, conspired to defraud the government by taking out of the warehouse of the distillery and selling old whisky and substituting therefor new whisky on which no tax had been paid.

Daly declares that there has been no irregularities in the conduct of the distillery and that the government will be made to pay for what he looks upon as merely a temporary interruption of the work of the plant.

The property seized is valued, according to Daly, at about $250,000, of which three-fifths is given as the value of the plant. The quantity of whisky seized was 8000 barrels.

Two Courses Open to Company
Washington, April 16.—The commissioner of international revenue has received the official report on the seizure under his instruction of the Carroll Springs distillery. It is stated at the treasury department that the government has been deprived of over $16,000 in revenue taxes.

There are two courses open to the company to get back their distillery,
either to take the case to the courts or pay the government the amount of loss it claims to have sustained.

FOR DIRECT PRIMARIES

Hughes Will Continue to Fight With That Object in View

New York, April 16.—Governor Hughes reiterated his belief in the principles of direct nominations and declared his intention to persevere in his advocacy of legislation having in view the establishing of these principles at a meeting held last night in Brooklyn.

The meeting, which was held under the auspices of the young Republican club of Brooklyn in furtherance of the direct primaries movement, was largely attended and the governor was interrupted by cheering.

A Knockout Blow

Albany, April 16.—After eight hours of debate, the state senate last night, by a vote of 33 to 24, adopted
the adverse report of the senate judiciary committee on the direct nominations bill, which kills the measure.
The result followed similar action on the part of the assembly last week.

"WILL BRING HIM LUCK"

Ketchell's Mother Will Be at the Ringside When He Fights Johnson
Detroit, April 16.—When Stanley Ketchell makes his attempt to wrest the laurels of the prize ring from the colored race at Colma, Cal., next October, his mother, Mrs. Kerop Arzoozian, will be on hand to see the battle.

"Yes, Stanley told me to get ready,"
said Mrs. Arzoozian. "He wants me to see him when he takes the championship from Johnson, and I want to be there too. I always did bring him luck and I won't go back on him now."

Taft at Yale Meeting
New Haven, April 16.—The meeting of the Yale Corporation here, which was attended by President Taft, was devoted almost entirely to a general discussion regarding the development of instruction and the location of future buildings.

A LIMITED INJUNCTION

It Permits Sunday Baseball Playing Without Unnecessary Noise

Patterson, N. J., April 16.—Vice Chancellor Stevenson, after a hearing here, granted an injunction restrain-ing those attending Sunday baseball games at the grounds of the Eastern League club from making unnecessary noise.

In granting the order he said the objection to Sunday ball playing might be due to religious belief and he would not, therefore, grant an injunction stopping all ball playing on the Sabbath. If the noise complained of continued, he said, he would grant such an injunction.

The vice chancellor, when the case
first came up, told the applicants that he would not enforce the blue laws but that he would protect them from any unnecessary nuisance.

A MESSAGE FROM TAFT

Revision of the Philippines Tariff Is Recommended

Washington, April 16.—President Taft sent his second special message to congress Thursday. In two ways it was like the first in that it was a model of brevity and that it was on the subject of the tariff. A revision of the Philippines tariff so as to permit as much revenue as possible,
while extending sufficient protection
to the islands' industries, was recommended.

There will be an increase in internal revenue duties by which it is hoped to make up the loss which the Philippine islands will sustain by the operation of the free trade provisions in the pending Payne tariff bill. The internal revenue laws for the Philippines are enacted by the Philippine assembly.

TWO POLICE OFFICERS ARE SUSPENDED

Charge That One Made an Effort to Bribe the Other

Pittsfield, Mass., April 16.—When Police Officers John Hines and Dennis Condon reported for duty last night
they were suspended by order of Mayor MacInnis, pending an investigation of the charge made against Hines by Condon during the trial of a civil suit, to the effect that Hines offered Condon money to testify falsely in the case.

The suit, which was an action for damages against a local manufacturing company for the accidental death of Officer Hines' father, was decided last night in favor of the plaintiff,
the widow, who was awarded $3500
by a jury.

It is understood that both the suspended officers will retain counsel and that they will appear before the mayor and aldermen for a hearing.

OWNER IS RESPONSIBLE

Must Settle For Negligence or Reck- lessness of Chauffeur

New York, April 16.—The jury in the case of James H. Sullivan, who sued to recover damages for injuries sustained by being run over by an automobile, was instructed by Justice Fitzgerald to disregard the fact that the owner of the vehicle at the time of the accident and to render a verdict for the plaintiff. Sullivan was awarded $1000 damages.

The case establishes the principle that the owner of an automobile is responsible for the negligence or recklessness of his chauffeur, irrespective of whether or not he is himself an occupant of the machine at the time of the display of this negligence or recklessness.

MAY BE "MRS MINOR"

But St. Louis Couple Cannot Posi- tively Identify Mrs. Boyle

Philburg, April 16.—While they would not positively identify Mrs.
Helen Boyle, now held in custody at Mercer in connection with the kidnapping of Willie Whirls, as their servant who disappeared from their home in St. Louis in 1907 about the same time that diamonds valued at $9000 were missed, Mrs. and Mrs. H.
C. Dyer, who went to Mercer and talked with Mrs. Boyle, say that in nearly every respect the prisoner corresponds with their former maid.

Mrs. Dyer seems especially confident that Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Frank Minor, the servant who disappeared,
are one and the same person. Mrs.
Boyle seemed averse to talking to Mrs. Dyer.

WHO ARE THE IMPOSTERS?

The recently adjourned legislature in our sister state of Maine passed one act which has attracted almost no attention yet is likely to cause a great deal of adjustment of personal doings. It is entitled "An act to protect benevolent, humane, fraternal or charitable organizations in the use of their names and emblems and providing penalties for the violation thereof."

The first section provides that no person, society, association or corporation shall assume, adopt, or use the name of a benevolent, humane, fraternal or charitable organization, incorporated under the laws of this state, or any other state, or of the United States, or holding its charter or warrant under some recognized supreme grand body having authority to issue the same or a name so nearly resembling the name of such organization as to be a colorable imitation thereof, or calculated to deceive persons not members, with respect to such organizations. In all cases where two or more of such societies, associations, corporations or organizations claim the right to the same name, or to names substantially similar as above provided, the organization which was first organized and used the name, or first became incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any state in the Union, shall be entitled in this state to the prior and exclusive use of such name, and the rights of such societies, associations, corporations or organizations and of their individual members shall be fixed and determined accordingly.

The second section relates to the matter of emblems, and provides that no person shall wear or exhibit the badge, button, emblem, decoration, insignia or emblem of any fraternal or charitable organization, incorporated under the laws of this state, or of the United States, or holding its charter or warrant under some recognized supreme grand body having authority to issue the same or a name so nearly resembling the name of such organization as to be a colorable imitation thereof, or calculated to deceive persons not members, with respect to such organizations. In all cases where two or more of such societies, associations, corporations or organizations claim the right to the same name, or to names substantially similar as above provided, the organization which was first organized and used the name, or first became incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any state in the Union, shall be entitled in this state to the prior and exclusive use of such name, and the rights of such societies, associations, corporations or organizations and of their individual members shall be fixed and determined accordingly.

The third and fourth sections provide for the methods of procedure in criminal prosecutions under the law and for a penalty of a fine not exceeding $50 or a jail term not exceeding thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. It is expressly provided that the law may be enforced by means of injunction, and that in injunction proceedings it shall be necessary to establish that any person has been deceived by the forbidden use of a society name or emblem or something resembling such name or emblem.

Several other states have similar laws, but our impression is that this is the most comprehensive measure yet passed for such a purpose. There is no particular known reason why this act should have been passed, except that on general principles it was thought to be needed. The law would seem to be aimed at those state parties who occasionally lob up and understate the making of Freemasons while they wait for whoever has the price. The parties who practice that are amenable to the law against obtaining money by false pretense, which is far more severe than this new measure. As for victims of those parties, they and themselves with their money gone and with no power to pass themselves off as Freemasons. These degree holders have admittedly been the objects aimed at in the Massachusetts and other states which have previously passed legislation of this class, and—of course—the legislation was accordingly worded differently from this bill which passed the Maine legislature. The bill might prevent any other society imitating the square and compass emblem of the Freemasons, even if something else were substituted for the accompanying letter G. It might forbid the church of the Congregational denomination retaining the denominational name after it had become Unitarian in faith, though that is doubtful. Massachusetts has several of those churches, but they will all take pains to specify that they are Unitarian rather than Trinitarian, while retaining the old corporate name. The word Congregational, moreover, does not refer to a creed but to a method of church government, and the adjective is accurately applied—as an adjective—to those Unitarian churches which use the name. The law might protect the Roman Catholic church against assumptions of the name Catholic by other organizations, though that is doubtful, for the Greek church and the English church, when called Catholic are carefully accompanied by a word to specify what kind of Catholic. The purpose of the law is certainly a laudable one, and the penalty is not over severe. But it is a mystery as to just what parties will be stopped from improper practices.

BIRDSEYE VIEWS

The new criminal code adopted at the recent session of the Washington State legislature, contains a strict anti-impersonation law which provides that "Every employee of a public house or public service corporation who solicits or receives any gratuity from any guest, and every person giving any gratuity shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES

'Consumption Disappearing

From out of the mortality statistics of the state of New Hampshire comes an interesting fact and a bright ray of light. From 1884 to 1897 the death rate from consumption has fallen from 24.19 in 10,000 of population to 10.63. The period covered includes twenty-four years. The decline was interrupted only once, in 1890, when a wave of influenza swept over the state which raised the death from tuberculosis from 17.42 to 21.91 in 10,000 in a single year. With that exception the decline in deaths was general throughout the period. Slight increases occurred at times, but the tide soon set in the downward direction again, and the end of the period of twenty-four years shows a decrease of more than one-half in the havoc wrought by the white plague. In 1884 the deaths from tuberculosis were 865, and in 1897 they were 465, the population of the state having increased meanwhile.

The causes of the decrease are said to be the educational influences and reforms that have been brought about by a persistent crusade against the disease. The state board of health believes that the chief factors in the decrease are the "advancement of the medical science, which has revealed the true nature of tuberculosis; the aid of the laboratory in assisting the physician to an early diagnosis; better food and environment for the working classes; improved hygiene; more out-of-door life; greater precautions against contaminating the disease; better ventilation of sleeping rooms, school houses, public institutions, etc.; in fact improved hygienic conditions generally.

The crusade is not ended. The death rate can be still further cut down. The new state sanatorium, systematically dissemination of literature dealing with the causes, prevention and remedies for the disease, and greater care in discovering and coping with the disease in its early stages will reduce the deaths to a more satisfactory figure. The progress already made is distinctly encouraging, and the future holds out hope of still greater progress to come. —Keene Sentinel.

The children's letters are interesting, however, and here they are:

Percival's Particularizing
Tacoma, Wash.,
March 26, 1909.
Editor of the Herald, Portsmouth, N. H.

Dear Sir:—Tacoma is located in the western part of Washington, on Commencement Bay on the east side of Puget Sound.

The resources are lumbering, manufacturing, and a small amount of fishing. There are also flour mills and candy factories.

Mt. Tacoma can be seen from Tacoma. It is fourteen thousand, five hundred twenty-six feet high. It is about seventy miles from Tacoma. Mr. Tacoma and the Olympic and Cascade ranges are snow covered. There are about eight hundred acres of parks in Tacoma. Pt. Defiance is the largest park in Tacoma. It is a natural park and is located by the bay. You will enjoy going to Pt. Defiance because it is not often that you see a natural park. There are many flowers and trees in Pt. Defiance. There are also many animals and birds. For the ducks and swans there is a large pond with a few fountains in it. There is another pond with many gold fish in it. There is a small bridge over it made out of poles. There are also many deer and Buffalo in the park. There is a large pavilion on the beach. You can go to Pt. Defiance on the car and come back to Tacoma on the boat. There are other small parks in Tacoma.

There are twenty-five schools in Tacoma counting the High school. The High school is considered the best High school this side of Mississippi. They are building a large stadium near the High school.

We would like to have the people make this their headquarters while at the fair.

The boats will be running nearly all the time and the electric interurban runs every hour. It takes about an hour and three quarters to go to Seattle.

There are plenty of large hotels in Tacoma, and you will be very comfortable while you are here. Our harbor is large enough to anchor all the fleets in the world.

We have the longest and largest wheat warehouse in the world. The racks of wheat and flour are loaded from the warehouses into the ships by electric conveyances.

We have two of the largest mills in the world.

We have a fine library. There is a large clock in the City Hall. It has four faces. At night it is all lit up.

One of the largest buildings is the court house. The museum is in the court house.

Tacoma is built like a large amphitheatre surrounding the bay.

Yours respectfully,
MONTY PERCIVAL.

Benjamin's Budget

Tacoma, Wash.

March 26, 1909.

Editor of the Herald, Portsmouth, N. H.

Dear Sir:—Tacoma is situated on Commencement Bay, an arm extending from the east side of Puget Sound. Puget Sound is in the western part of Washington.

This city has over one hundred thousand inhabitants. It has many resources and industries. There are a large number of saw mills and grist mills here. There are large forests around Tacoma and the logs are cut and hauled in on trains. There are millions of bushels of wheat and sacks of flour shipped from Tacoma every year. Immense quantities of lumber are shipped too.

Sixty-two miles from Tacoma is Mt. Tacoma. It is fourteen thousand five hundred twenty-six feet high. There is beautiful scenery around Mt. Tacoma. There are also many beautiful parks in Tacoma. The best one is Pt. Defiance park. This park is a natural park and is situated on the Sound. It covers four hundred acres. There are many beautiful flowers in this park. In one place there is a deep gulch which is spanned by a bridge eighty feet high made entirely of logs. There is a pavilion and boat house on the beach.

There are twenty-five schools in Tacoma. The Tacoma High school is one of the finest high schools west of the Mississippi river. Tacoma is building a stadium for the high school students' athletic clubs. Visitors must be sure and watch the progress of the stadium.

trains make several trips also. There are many fine hotels in Tacoma. They are building fine hotels now that will be in use when the fair opens.

Along the water front there are large grain warehouses where millions of bushels of grain are stored. Huge trans-Pacific ocean liners load at these warehouses. At the lumber mills large sailing vessels are constantly loading lumber.

There is a large smelter near Pt. Defiance park on the bay. Tacoma has a Carnegie Library, a beautiful building with lawns and flowers all around it. Near the library is the county court house. In this building is a museum, where many interesting articles are found. By the court house is the state armory. This building was completed last month.

THE SAILOR'S BALL A GRAND SUCCESS

Given Complimentary to the Crew of the U. S. Battleship Wisconsin by Citizens of Portsmouth Under Auspices of Board of Trade and Merchants Exchange.—Decorations Magnificent and Attendance Large.

The Easter ball complimentary to the officers and crew of the United States battleship Wisconsin, given by the citizens of this city, under the auspices of the Portsmouth Board of Trade and Merchants Exchange, was held at Freeman's hall on Thursday evening and it was undoubtedly the most successful and elaborate big dance ever held in this city. A small estimate of the crowd would be two thousand people, for every seat in the gallery along with all of the available standing room was taken while on the floor were at least three hundred couples, either dancing or seated about the hall.

The preliminary arrangements were made by a committee from the Board of Trade and Merchants Exchange but the details and all other arrangements were made by the committees selected from the crew of the battleship and both left nothing undone.

The decorations were by far the best ever seen in this city, for hundreds of flags thousands of yards of bunting and hundreds of electric lights were used, the whole producing an effect that was very pleasing. The ship's flag chests had been used for the decoration and the flag of every nation even to that of Siam and other small nations were used.

The prevailing colors of course was the national colors, while the ship's flag was given a prominent place. From the ceiling a canopy effect was secured by draping immense flags from the side walls to the center, completely covering the ceiling. The center of this was taken up with an immense electrical star, from the points of which radiated the festoons of colored electric lights to the facades of the gallery. The entire side walls were completely covered with the flags of all nations, while the facades of the gallery were draped with the same material. Two "U. S. S. Wisconsin" flags being crossed at the end. The orchestra stage which was raised several feet above the floor was handsomely decorated, for in addition to the artistic draping of several American flags was added a profusion of palms and cut flowers. To the right of the orchestra stage an improvised drawing room had been made, with Mission furniture and the extra decorations noticeable at this point. Here the special guests of the evening were received.

On the left hand side of the stage fruit punch was served by Roy Phillipine mess attendants under the supervision of a colored steward. At the other end of the hall in the anti room eight or more of these mess attendants served ice cream and cake during the evening, for owing to the crowd it was feared that all would not be served during intermission.

The Concert

From 8.30 until 9 o'clock Hoyt and Parker's orchestra, C. B. Hoyt, leader, rendered in a most pleasing manner the following concert numbers, March "The Free Lance" Sousa Selection from "Mile Mischief"

Lichter Medley Overture, Shapiro's Song Successes Affords

Grand March

At nine o'clock the grand march was started and this was led by Captain F. E. Beatty, U. S. N., commanding officer of the ship accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, followed by Chief Quartermaster Brewster and Mrs. Beatty, the officers of the ship, and their ladies and many of the members of the Board of Trade and Merchants Exchange with their ladies and the crew and other guests. The march was well executed and presented a very pretty picture with the uniforms of the officers and the crew and the light dresses of the ladies.

A Novel Feature

Dancing followed the march and one of the most striking features was on the last dance before intermission. There was a large crowd of dancers on the floor when suddenly the lights were dimmed and at the same time the strains of the orchestra music began to fade away until suddenly from several parts of the hall the music seemed to be taken up low but distinct and with the same time. The dancers for a time were completely phased, but continued and after a while the low strains of the orchestra were heard gradually swelling to the normal tone as the lights came on. The solution of the problem was in one of the ante rooms where a large Victor Gramophone from the F. W. Peabody store in charge of Manager Hassett, had been connected up with a line of telephone wires and in several parts of the hall large receivers had been installed and a given signal the Victor took up the strains of the same selection played by the orchestra. It was a novel and catchy arrangement which greatly pleased the large audience.

Among those present were noticed Rear Admiral E. K. Moore, U. S. N., commandant of the Navy Yard and Mrs. Moore, Captain C. J. Boush, U. S. N. and several other naval officers from the yard, the marine officers from the barracks and naval prison. Practically all of the officers of the ship were present in full dress uniform.

The following were the most efficient committees who had charge:

Arrangements—C. E. Lyon, F. J. Bierman, G. P. Smallman.

Reception—C. Johnson, J. F. Mahoney, G. B. Fletcher, D. R. Lattimer, W. T. Ross, S. O. Thompson.

Floor Directors—F. J. Bierman, W. W. Dickey, F. W. Stone, A. W. Kisser, H. T. W. Gringer, C. Murphy, W. A. Gilman, L. Rotham, J. P. Whitely, G. Lambertini, G. W. Dunaway, B. G. J. Dodge.

Decorations—W. Williamson, W. C. Milligan, C. T. Chance, L. N. Harper, N. Monroe, L. Bodat, H. W. Honeck, H. Goedecke, C. Selbert.

Police officer George Ducker was on the door and stationed about the hall by orders of Chief Engineer J. D. Randall were four firemen in uniform, the great mass of bunting used in the decorations making this precaution wise. Four electricians from the Rockingham Light and Power Company were about the hall through the courtesy of Supt. J. H. Whitaker.

Taken as a whole it was a great success and the result very pleasing to the officers of the ship as well as the crew who greatly appreciate this

Good Things To Eat

STRAWBERRY CREAM CAKES.

Nothing is easier to make than puffy golden cream cakes if one follows directions to the letter and there is nothing in the ordinary line that will turn out so absolute a failure if guess work is substituted for definite measurements. There are two ways of making them, the difference being in the proportion of flour and eggs.

For six creamcakes put one-quarter cup of butter, a pinch of salt and one-half cup of hot water together and let it come to a boil, then turn in all at once three-quarter cups of sifted pastry flour. Beat together until well mixed and the mixture clings together in one mass. Set aside and when cool put in two unbeaten eggs, one at a time, stirring each until the mixture is smooth. Drop in six spoonfuls on a buttered tin and bake 20 minutes. The oven should be quick at first in order that the cakes will rise well and then the heat may be lessened lest the crust brown before the interior is entirely done, which would cause the cakes to fall.

For a filling beat some cream, stir in an equal amount of mashed and sweetened strawberries.

The other rule for cream cakes requires five eggs to one cup of flour and the process of putting together is the same.

KITTERY LETTER

Jeet, an ill wind that blows nobody good, for the principal thing that gave rise to the necessity of repairing the auditorium and then following with rededication, was the fall of the lighted centre chandelier some months since. We understand that a preacher to succeed Rev. Clarence P. Emery, now in Chelapet, R. I. is in prospect having quite recently preached as a candidate. We predict a strengthening of the things that remain, and success in the work of the First Church of Christ in Kittery.

The Amoskeag Manufacturing Company is soon to charter a vessel for a year to bring coal to this port for transshipment to their mills at Manchester. There is a possibility that one of the six masted of the Winslow fleet of Portland will be engaged.

The five-master Gardner G. Deering sailed Thursday for Philadelphia to load the first cargo of coal of her season charter to the Cochecho mills of Dover, all of which will be discharged here.

An undisputed claimant, for first place among speed motor boats on the Piscataqua and its tributaries is undoubtedly the sixty horsepower craft just purchased by Timothy Flynn of South Berwick from owners at Lake Winnepesaukee. She is expected to make thirty miles an hour.

Night fireman Fred Blake of the Atlantic Shore line power station is laid up with a sprained ankle as the result of falling from the coal pile a few nights ago. His place is being taken by Herbert Johnson.

The schooner Cora Green, which has discharged coal at George D. Boulter's wharf, Kittery, sailed this morning for Bangor to load lumber for New York. There also departed the schooners Winchester for Philadelphia, Jordan L. Mott and Mary Augusta for New York and Lavolta for Providence, and the tug Wyoming towing barges Buck Mountain for Portland and Baronet for Augusta, all of which have been storm-bound.

Seven open cars were added to the Atlantic Shore line's rolling stock, it is reported, in the recent purchase.

Capt. A. P. Ginn, who recently purchased the Dover three master, John Bacewell, is on her way here with coal for Kennebunkport. The Lake-built three master Charles E. Wyman is now discharging at that place.

P. A. C. TAKE ALL FOUR POINTS

FROM CATHOLIC UNION IN CLUB BOWLING LEAGUE—NOW TIE WITH WARWICK CLUB FOR SECOND PLACE—SCHEDULE FOR SECOND HALF OF TOURNAMENT.

The P. A. C. sprung a surprise in the Club Bowling league at the Elks alleys last night when they defeated the Catholic Union, taking all four of the points. The winners were very much on their game and rolled their best string of the tournament having a total pin fall of 1261, falling down somewhat in their last string. Rowe was high man with 230 for a three string total and R. Kirvan was high man for his team.

This win for the P. A. C. places them tie with the Warwick club for second place in the league and makes the Catholic Union fourth. The Country club still has a comfortable lead being 17 points while the Warwick and P. A. C. are both 12 points each and the Elks 11 points and the Catholic Union 8.

The second half of the tournament will be started after the fair.

The summary:

Man the Brakes

Editor Herald:—I read through the columns of your paper that the veteran men are busy in search of a handish and have good prospects of locating a famous machine now owned at Hudson, Mass.

This machine is placed as a prize winner and has quite a record. As an old handish man, permit me to say that this machine if it comes here, cannot be a world better interest the association takes some interest in picking out a crew to handle the brakes.

The Porter crew should be reorganized and some new beef put in for the summer's work and I advise the company to take this matter under earnest consideration.

STATE MILITIA REORGANIZED

ONE REGIMENT DISBANDED AND FOUR COMPANIES TO BE OR-GANIZED AS COAST ARTILLERY
CORPS.—STATE TO RETAIN ONE REGIMENT OF INFANTRY OF TWELVE FULL COMPANIES.

The greatest shakeup in the state militia since the days of the civil war was made public yesterday when Adjutant General Harry B. Cilley announced Governor Quinn's orders for a complete reorganization of the New Hampshire National Guards, the same to take effect on April 27.

Briefly summarized, the brigade headquarters will be abolished entirely by the two regiments of infantry will be consolidated in one with new field officers, seven companies of infantry will be disbanded and four will be transformed into a battalion of Coast Artillery. The present colonel of both regiments with their staff will be shelved in the general sweep.

Two of the Manchester companies C and L, will be disbanded, but the First Infantry band of that city will be retained while the Nevers band of Concord will be dropped from the state service.

A majority of the present field of ficers will be dropped and in two instances captains will be advanced from the line to take command of battalions. Outside of the medical department the general staff will be affected but slightly. The new regiment of infantry will be made up as follows:

- The New Regiment.
- Maj. Paul F. Babbidge, Keene, colonel.
 - Maj. Harley B. Roby, Concord, lieutenant-colonel.
 - Maj. Michael J. Healy, Manchester, 1st Major.
 - Capt. William E. Sullivan, Co. I, Nashua, 2nd major.
 - Capt. Oscar P. Cole, Co. G, Berlin 3. major.
 - Co. A—Co. A. First Infantry, Manchester.
 - Co. B—Co. B. First Infantry, Manchester.
 - Co. C—Co. C. Second Infantry, Concord.
 - Co. D—Co. E. First Infantry, Nashua.
 - Co. E—Co. E. Second Infantry, Concord.
 - Co. F—Co. F. First Infantry, Manchester.
 - Co. G—Co. G. First Infantry, Keene.
 - Co. H—Co. H. First Infantry, Keene.
 - Co. I—Co. I. First Infantry, Nashua.
 - Co. K—Co. K. First Infantry, Manchester.
 - Co. L—Co. C. Second Infantry, Berlin.
 - Co. M—Co. M. Second Infantry, Newbury.
- In the above list the letter first named is the letter the companies will bear in the new regiment, and the second is their present designation. This gives Manchester four companies, Nashua two, Keene two, Concord two and Berlin and Newbury one each. Manchester, Nashua and Concord have state armories.

The Coast Artillery.

The following companies will be transformed into Coast Artillery, constituting one battalion.

- Co. B. Second Infantry, Portsmouth, Capt. Chauncey R. Hoyt.
- Co. K. Second Infantry, Laconia, Capt. Walter H. Burgess.
- Co. I. Second Infantry, Exeter, Capt. Alvin E. Foss.
- Co. A. Second Infantry, Dover, Capt. Austin E. Sanborn.

No battalion commander has yet been selected for the Coast Artillery. The officers of the four companies are assigned to that department will appear before an examining board presided over by Capt. McBride, U. S. Coast Artillery of Portsmouth, and the battalion commander will be selected after these examinations.

The Companies Disbanded

At the present time there are by eleven companies in the Second Infantry, the company caused by the disbandment of Co. L of Dover not being filled, and only seven companies will be disbanded. The seven are as follows.

- Company C, First Infantry, Manchester.
- Company D, First Infantry, Milford.
- Company L, First Infantry, Manchester.
- Company M, First Infantry, Nashua.
- Company D, Second Infantry, Claremont.
- Company F, Second Infantry, Littleton.
- Company H, Second Infantry, Franklin.

Cause of the Change

The reduction of the National Guard of the state was forced by the action of the legislature in cutting down the appropriation asked for to maintain the troops according to the standard demanded by the federal government, which contributes largely to the support of the militia, under the Dick Bill, but which will give nothing where troops are not up to the standard. The legislature of 1905 cut the National Guard appropriation from the $74,000 estimate submitted by Adj. Gen. Harry B. Cilley to $57,000 this year and $55,000 next year.

The fact that the sum actually given was larger than has been appropriated in past years befooled the judgment of legislators, who did not stop to consider that the war department requirements had increased in far greater proportion than the allowance asked from the state. In the old day a company of forty men was looked upon as answering requirements, but now the federal government demands a minimum strength of 61 officers and men to a company, and the cost of maintenance must be increased in proportion.

The National Guard today is subject to direct call from the president and there is no such thing as "volunteering" as far as the state troops are concerned when they are needed for active service. They can be ordered directly into the field, as are the regular troops the government contributes very liberally to their support in arms, uniforms, equipment, ordnance and the support of rifle practice. Yet the states are allowed the use of the troops for emergencies, like that which occurred at the Manchester conflagration, strikes, riots, etc., and are accordingly asked to contribute a fair proportion toward the cost of maintenance. Where the state fails to do its share, the federal government withdraws its support.

Many Officers Retired.

The abolishment of brigade headquarters and the consolidation of the two infantry regiments forces the retirement of a large number of officers who have been well known in military circles for years.

The headquarters organization of each infantry regiment is abolished with that of the brigade, and only a portion of the field officers are retained in the state service. The staff officers go with their superiors unless retained by the successors of the latter.

The abolishment of the brigade headquarters retires General Jason E. Tolles of Nashua, who has been in the state service since he enlisted as a private in Co. F of the Old Second in October, 1877. He has served two five-year terms as brigade commander and was re-commissioned for a third term a few weeks ago. With him goes his staff, consisting of Lieut. Emmet Walsh of Manchester, and Lieut. James B. Crowley of Nashua, aides-de-camp. Lieutenant Walsh has been in the state service since 1895, and Lieutenant Crowley since 1892. Major C. W. Howard, adjutant general, is a member of the general staff but attached to brigade headquarters.

Major Charles A. Roby of Nashua, commissary officer attached to brigade headquarters and who has been in the state service since 1877 will be retired and will be succeeded by Major Ross L. Piper of Laconia, at present senior major of the Second Infantry, who will be chief commissary of the general staff.

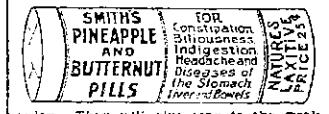

The medical department of the general staff will be reduced. Major H. H. Jewell of Nashua, Major H. O.

How's Your Stomach?

The gravity of enlargement of the stomach cannot be overestimated. One of the principal causes of this condition is indigestion, which is the result of eating and drinking. Weakness of the muscles that propel food to the stomach is also a factor in allowing the food to accumulate in the stomach, and thus stretching it to enormous dimensions. Constipation and indigestion of the liver is also a prominent cause.

In this condition you usually find a coated tongue, a bad taste in the mouth, belching of food and gas, and vomiting of sour liquid, varying in amount. Weakness, nervousness and want of energy are usually present.

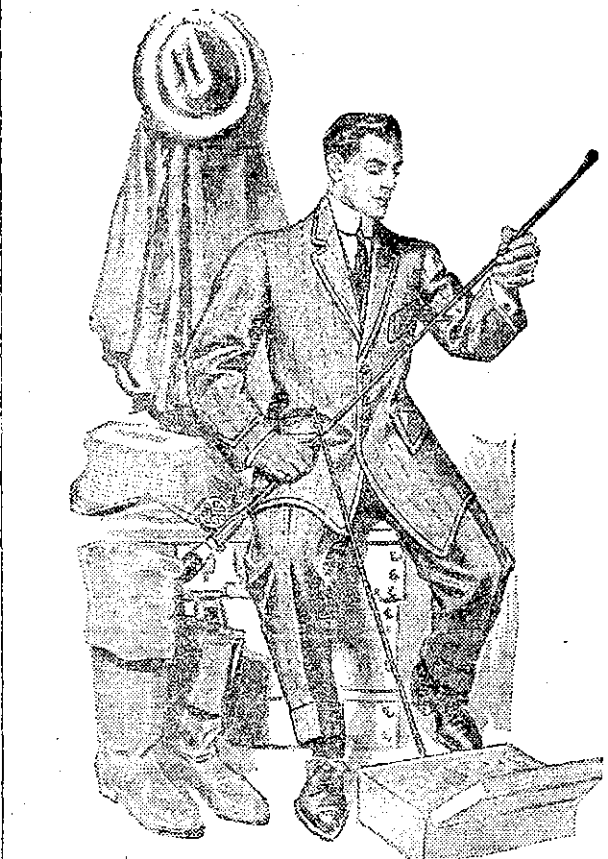

Now, to overcome this distressing and dangerous enlargement of the stomach and all its symptoms, take

Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. They will give tone to the weak propelling muscles of the stomach, and induce a normal movement of the contents of the bowels and avoid the formation of gas, which, if retained, stretches the stomach to enormous dimensions. Food long retained in the stomach and matter in the bowels show all the signs of putrefaction, when examined after the stomach pump is used, it is sour, odoriferous, yeasty, acrid and organic and which are deleterious to the entire system.

Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure constipation as if by magic. They regulate the functions of the liver, cleanse the system from the blood, remove the bilious elements from the circulation and strengthen the nerves. If your eyes are clouded without an appreciable cause, if you have specks and floating objects before your vision, use Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills and get the poisonous elements out of your blood. Physicians use and recommend. They form no habit, and are not addictive. These little Vegetable Pills will ward off many ills and they Chesley of Dover and Lieut. S. G. Morrill of Concord will be retired. The enlisted men of the hospital corps, who are now divided between the two infantry regiments and brigade headquarters, will be reduced later, although a portion will be assigned to the Coast Artillery.

The quartermaster's department will remain unchanged. Major E. Ray Shay remaining chief assistant to the adjutant general who is quartermaster-general ex-officio in time of peace. The pay department will remain unchanged.

One change will be made in the ordinance department. Major Arthur F. Cummings and Capt. M. H. Degnan of Nashua will remain in service, but Capt. R. S. Foss of Laconia as present attached to the Second Infantry, will be retired.

The abolishment of First Infantry headquarters retires Col. Arthur G. Shattuck of Nashua, who has been in service since 1891. Lt. Col. Treffe Raiche of Manchester, who has been in service since 1887. Capt. G. Perley Elliot of Manchester, who has served off and on since 1898 and who is a Spanish war veteran. Capt. Horace E. Osgood, Nashua, quartermaster for 12 years. Capt. Albert A. Beakely of Manchester, commissary, who has served in various grades since 1893 and Capt. Patrick J. Scott of Wilton, chaplain, who has served since 1903. Colonel Babbidge will select his adjutant quartermaster, commissary officer, quartermaster and chaplain.

The command of the First Battalion First Infantry comprises Sergt. Nabbedge having been retired some weeks ago, Maj. Healy has a full staff. Major Edward A. G. Smith, commanding the third battalion, is retired. His staff comprises Lieut. H. H. Rouse adjutant, and Lieut. Fred A. Foster, quartermaster and commissary.

The non-commissioned staff of the First Infantry comprises Sergt. Major John W. Ferrier of Manchester, Quartermaster Sergeant Oscar G. Laguerre of Manchester, Commissary Sergeant, Patrick A. Sullivan of Manchester, Drum-Major John E. Uddy of Manchester, and Color Sergeants George D. Reed of Nashua and Patrick Sheehy of Manchester. Colonel Babbidge will have the selection of his non-commissioned staff.

Colonel Raiche Brevetted.

Lt-Col. Treffe Raiche of Manchester is not retired without distinguished honors. Wednesday Governor Quinn by conferred upon him the rank of brevet-colonel in recognition of his long and honorable service for the state.

The governor also conferred the rank of brevet-major-general upon three former brigade commanders, viz Gen. Joseph M. Clough of New London, Gen. Daniel M. White of Peterborough and Gen. J. M. Patterson of Concord.

The infantry, field artillery, cavalry signal corps and hospital corps will go into camp at Concord, June 14-18 inclusive, and the coast artillery will do a five-days tour of duty at Forts Stark and Constitution, Portsmouth, July 12-17 inclusive.

BODY RECOVERED

Amesbury, April 16.—The body of Mrs. Mary Morrill, who was reported to have committed suicide by drowning was found on Thursday in the Powow river, about 300 yards distant from the spot where she was said to have jumped overboard. Medical Examiner D. D. Murphy will hold an autopsy, inasmuch as the officials of the police department seem to think that there were certain mysterious phases of the case which need clearing up.

The suicide of Mrs. Morrill was reported to the police by Frank Dow, a watchman at a factory overlooking the river. Dow said that the woman called to him last night from one of the windows of the factory, and that later she had disappeared, throwing herself into the river, according to Dow's belief as expressed to the authorities.

WHEAT DEAL CAUSING TROUBLE

PRESIDENT TAFT HAS BEEN ASKED TO INTERFERE, BUT THERE IS NO LAW TO REACH THE OPERATORS.—THE SHERMAN ANTI TRUST LAW MAY BE APPEALED TO.

Washington, April 16.—No confirmation can be secured here of the rumor that President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham are contemplating legal action by the Government to prevent such speculative operations as that now being carried on in the wheat market by James A. Patterson and other operators. It was learned authoritatively that the matter was informally discussed Wednesday at a conference held at the Attorney General's office, when the matter of administration of railroad affairs was being considered. Congressman Townsend of Michigan has stated, however, that he knew of no plans for action on the part of the Government nor had any plan been formulated for new legislation on the subject. Attorney General Wickersham was in Philadelphia Thursday and Wade Ellis, the trust-busting expert of the department, professed entire ignorance of the situation.

Scores of telegrams and letters have come to the President and to the Department of Justice, protesting against the "bullying" of the wheat market and the forcing of the prices of wheat and flour to such high levels. If any action is ultimately decided upon by the Government, it will undoubtedly be under the anti-conspiracy clause of the Sherman law. Congressman Townsend, Congressman Stevens of Minnesota and others admit that it would be impossible to frame a law covering the subject of the market is reached in any way it will have to be through the Sherman law, and through the proving of a conspiracy which involves the interstate transportation of grain.

The puzzling question is how to initiate action or frame a law against speculation in futures which would not also operate equally to prevent all proper trading. The offense does not consist in dealing in future values for every manufacturer does that every day, but in forcing prices up beyond a certain reasonable level. Obviously legislation could not establish a price level for a farmer has the right to sell his wheat for whatever price he can get. The buyer has the right to hold it as long as he pleases. Patten is buying all the actual wheat that is offered him and paying cash for it, as he has a perfect legal right to do. Congressmen are feverishly anxious to take some steps which will prevent hardships to the poor which appear certain to follow through the increase in the price of bread, or the reduction of the size of the loaf, unless the Patten deal is smashed, but they do not know what to do.

It is suggested that the removal of duty on wheat might aid in breaking prices, but the former element would oppose it. They do not object to the Patten operation. Besides, the removal of the duty might ease prices in the present emergency, but it would not reduce them at other times, as the Canadian desire free wheat that they may obtain the benefit of American competition. Notwithstanding this peculiar fact Congress would not dare lower the wheat duty for political reasons.

THEATRICAL TOPICS

Footlight Flashes

Julian Mitchell, who staged "The Follies of 1908," has been responsible for most of the big stage productions in recent years.

Trixie Cadiz, known in Washington as "The Whirlwind Chorister," is one of the special dancers in "The Follies of 1908."

Miss May Simon, the "Yiddish Leslie Carter" will play in English under the management of Henry B. Harris next season. Mr. Harris himself discovered Miss Simon. She had been playing on the New York Bowery and Mr. Harris went down to see her. He suggested that she study English and she at once devoted night and day and has mastered it. Miss Simon was a star in Europe before coming to America.

In the minstrel and vaudeville tour for the benefit of the Lanab's Club Augustus Thomas and De Wolf Hopper will alternate in the minstrel part as interlocutors, and the end men will include William H. Croce, William Collier and Jefferson De Angeles. Victor Herbert is to have charge of the orchestra. Thomas Wise is to be stage director, and Joseph Brooks will have charge of the publicity committee, which will include many prominent press agents. Eugene Cowles will be one of the ballad singers in the first part.

Only two survivors of the cast who played "Our American Cousin" the night Lincoln was assassinated are recalled, one Mrs. George Brooks, now playing in "The Great Divide," and Mr. E. A. Emerson, who now resides in Washington.

John Tansey, the seven-year-old actor, who has one of the most important roles in "The Truants," played the child in "Let's with Nannette Comstock early in the season, and later made one of the hits of "This Man and This Woman" in New York. He began his professional career with Nat Goodwin at the age of two years.

By formal note of resignation the Shuberts have withdrawn from the Association of Theatre Managers of Greater New York. It is announced that there is no especial significance in the firm's withdrawal, it merely being another indication that the Shuberts prefer to "go it alone."

Ralph Kellard, who has just closed his season as Arthur Warren in Belasco's "The Warrens of Virginia," has gone to Milwaukee to play juvenile roles with the stock company at the Shubert Theatre there, opening in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs."

After a long tour, which has included most of the principal cities, Hattie Williams' season in "Fluffy Ruffles" will come to an end on Saturday in Brooklyn. According to the present plan Miss Williams will be seen next season in "The Marriage of a Star."

Last Thursday night "Going Some," the farce by Paul Armstrong and Rex Beach, was successfully presented for the first time in New Haven. The company includes a number of well known players among them being Walter Jones, Lawrence Wheat and Herbert Crothell.

Charles Frohman has engaged Milton Sills, who recently appeared in the support of Charlotte Nilsson, for one of the important roles in "The Happy Marriage," the comedy by Clyde Fitch that opens in New York tomorrow night. Mr. Sills succeeds Mr. Eric Mastrin in the part of John Mayne.

Klaw and Erlanger have acquired for production next season a play by Kate Douglas Wiggin and Charlotte Thompson, entitled "Rebecca." It is founded upon two novels, "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm" and "The Chronicles of Rebecca," written by Miss Wiggin. The story is a simple one.

Martin Harvey, the London manager-actor, has secured the rights to Guimera's "Marta of the Lowlands" for England, Ireland, Scotland, and has signed contracts with he translators, Wallace Gilpatrick and Guido Marburg, for an early production. The latter have refused several offers to put this play into stock.

The stock managers of the country have combined and will form a general organization. This idea of the association is to bring the managers of stock companies into closer business and friendly relations and to lessen the cost of play-producing. There will be an officer in New York, which will act as a clearing house for the stock managers, and this office will deal directly with owners or authors of plays, guaranteeing them a season instead of a week here and there with individual managers. Percy G. Williams is president of the new corporation. The association has been chartered in Albany.

TIE IN TWELVE INNINGS

Young Ionas and Green Streets Play a Ten to Ten Game

The Young Ionas played a ten to ten tie game this forenoon with the Green street lads on the Green street grounds. The features of the game were the pitching of Kingsbury whose specialty is an out curve, Phillips' work behind the bat and the battery team work of Davis and Moody.

The game was called at the end of the twelfth inning on account of the ball breaking a window. The Ionas team was: Moody, pitcher, Davis catcher, Rand first base, Dow second base, Quinn third base, Dowling short stop, Harrington right field, Crabum middle field, Walker right field.

The Green street players were: Kingsbury pitcher, Phillips catcher, Hall first base, A. Gorman, second base, Dunlap third base, Sanderson short stop, Hersey right field, Shaw center field, Thomas right field.

Samuel Pottle nupired and Simon Katz did the bookkeeping.

There was a good crowd of spectators and the game was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Young Ionas will play the Shamrocks on Saturday.
